

Book Club Reading Comprehension Sample Rubric

Student: _____.

Book Title: _____.

KEY: 1 Not observed. 2 Occasionally. 3 Much of the time. 4 Almost always. N/A Not applicable

CRITERIA	DATE	DATE	DATE
Demonstrates understanding of the book's content through oral contributions.
Demonstrates they understand the contribution of other group members.
Able to support ideas with examples from text.
Shows awareness of relevant content as well as the order of which events occur within text.
Predicts possible future content by linking to prior knowledge from both the book's text and its genre.
Takes turns during discussions.
Makes inferences based on the text.
Summarizes information as it relates to character development, theme, setting, plot, conflict; etc.
Goes beyond text to present novel ideas, connections and views.
Expresses appropriate opinions based on the content of the text.
Reflects and shares personal opinions, thoughts and feelings with supporting evidence, both orally and through writing and notetaking.
Records and reflects through writing and notetaking according to spelling, punctuation and grammar conventions.
Reconsiders understanding when new evidence is presented.

Comments: